Our Aspiration Curriculum

COME AND EXPLORE!

ASPIRATION CURRICULUM

Come and explore the world of work!
Learn about 42 different careers that could spark a love of something new. Discover exciting possibilities, build new skills and imagine where your future might take you!

LEARN THROUGH FOUR BIG ADVENTURES!

1 Career Posters

What is the career really like?
Find out what people do, where they work and the skills they use.

2 Case Studies

Who has made a difference?
Meet well-known people from history and modern times who have helped shape our world.

3 Have a Go!

What is it like doing this job?
Try a practical challenge and think, create or solve problems like a professional.

4 Sustainability Project

How can this career help our world?
Explore how the job can help people, protect our planet and make a positive difference.

42 CAREERS • 7 YEARS
A WORLD OF POSSIBILITIES!

What could spark a love of something new?

“The school’s aspiration curriculum is exceptional.” OfSTED 2025

Meet over 100 Great People

72 Great Artists / Designers

Encounter artists and creative ideas.

Look closely, discuss and develop a personal response.

Build confidence to create through our 'Have a go!' portfolios

42 Great Scientists (STEM)

Discover the people behind scientific ideas.

Explore questions, evidence and discoveries – 'Talk like a Scientist'

See a future in science as open to everyone.

Children meet people and ideas that can inspire interests for life – in all walks of life

Everyone Different, Everyone Equal

Age-appropriate stories help children talk about difference and belonging.

We teach respect for different people and families, including protected characteristics.

Children learn to recognise unfairness and speak up kindly.

Fundamental British Values

Inky the Great Learner

School values we practise every day

Determined

Keeping going and learning from mistakes.

Keen to Learn

Being curious and asking questions.

Organised

Learning routines and managing belongings.

Well-Behaved

Showing respect and making thoughtful choices.

Focused

Building attention and completing a task.

Pupil Leadership with real Responsibility

A voice in school life, from the earliest years onwards

Head Pupils, Prefects and House Captains

Older children help lead and model our school values.

School Council and Eco Council

Children share ideas and contribute to improvements.

Wrens' buddies

Older pupils help our youngest children feel part of the school.

Outdoor learning and Forest School Sport, Clubs and new challenges

Opportunities grow as children move through school.
Clubs vary by term.

Music and Performance Visits and residential experiences

Inclusion is part of Everyday Teaching

IQM Centre of Excellence

Everyone is included and belongs

Teachers adapt learning and provide additional support where needed.

Families help us plan and review the next steps.

Specialist advice supports our work when appropriate.

'Inclusion is threaded through every element and environment of Inkberrow. If there was one example of how to make inclusion a fundamental approach at a school, and to avoid the pitfalls of tokenism and box-ticking often seen in settings, Inkberrow would be it.'

IQM Assessor 26

Feeling safe and understood helps children learn

Trusted adults

Children have people to turn to when something is worrying them.

THRIVE and Inky's Den

Support for emotional development and learning to regulate feelings.

Working alongside families

Early conversations, shared plans and links to further help when needed.
